UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR BRIEFING EXTENSION BY APPELLANT STRAND

Appellant Strand, by counsel, moves the Court to extend the time for filing his brief by two weeks. Circuit Rule 28(e). The government does not oppose this motion. Appellant's requested relief is supported by the following considerations.

Strand's brief is due September 25, 2023. Appellant's counsel recently completed two trials as well as several sentencing hearings in the past few weeks. An additional two weeks' time would ensure that counsel has had the opportunity to fully review the record, conduct relevant research, and complete briefing on all issues that merit attention. In addition, counsel has encountered difficulties in communicating with the Appellant after he surrendered to serve his sentence of incarceration. An extension of time would allow counsel to further discuss the appeal with Strand in advance of the briefing deadline.

Accordingly, Appellant moves the Court to extend his briefing deadline to October 9, 2023.

Dated: September 18, 2023

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Nicholas D. Smith
